“What the Fun” is Youth Take the Stage?

YOUTH TAKE THE STAGE (or YttS) is a uniquely innovative program that is directed toward celebrating the extraordinary talent of youth throughout the Coachella Valley and ensuring that they have the opportunity to perform in public. Deriving from Childrens Playtime Productions’ (CPP) 30+ years of working directly with valley youth, one of the most exciting aspects of this program is that it offers the chance for youth from different valley programs — or no program at all — to come together and do what they love — PERFORM! Theatre companies, dance companies, school performance groups, after-school programs, and, even the self-taught independent artists (solos, bands, group acts, etc.) are welcome! This program spans all genres — acting, singing, dancing, playing instruments, or performing any of a multitude of other entertainment forms. The limits are set only by the talents of our valley youth, therefor - unlimited.

AND, What is this “Festival” of 10-Minute Musicals?

As a company, CPP has dedicated this entire season to arranging royalties for “smaller” productions. This is intended to give participants more opportunities to sink their acting chops into a greater number of characters, leads, supports — whatever they are looking for to hone their craft! Once a selection of mini-musicals came to our attention, it was a natural leap to offer them out for performance opportunities to valley youth. This valley is blessed to have high schools in all three school districts that embrace the value of theatrical arts in education to the extent that nearly every high school and middle school offers drama programs and state of the art high school facilities. Being at the vanguard of youth education through theatre, it was obvious to us at CPP that the blessings should be celebrated publicly; giving schools the opportunity to share their talents with their peers AND to show the public how beneficial these opportunities are led us here today.

Tell you more, you say?

This is the first-of-a-kind event — but, hopefully not last. All local high schools were invited to take on at least one production today. As not all high schools could make it happen, there was room for double-entries by some. In addition, CPP pulled together its own entry from a dedicated group of middle school students that comprise our first, highly anticipated, The Spians performance troupe.

Who will we see performing today?

You will see entries from Desert Hot Springs High School out of Palm Springs Unified School District, Shadow Hills High School and Palm Desert High School (2 entries each) out of Desert Sands Unified School District, and Desert Mirage High School out of Coachella Valley Unified School District. Middle School Students that cross school districts and schools. Details about each of these are in this playbill below.

How is all of this made possible?

In major part, this season is made possible through a generous grant from Anderson Children’s Foundation. ACF deserves extra credit as it was a prior ACF grant that helped us launch the first iteration of Youth Take the Stage just as the world was re-awakening from COVID. This opportunity has spawned over a dozen projects that have brought youth dreams alive on stage. Support for this Festival also comes from direct show sponsors for this program — Chez Pierre Bistro, Denny’s, Palm Desert High School, Matthew Creighton — and our ongoing supporters appreciated on the next page.

PALM DESERT HIGH SCHOOL

Book & Lyrics - Talaura Harms

Music - Jonathan Bauerfeld

In this fun and energetic musical, Charlotte is secretly in love with the librarian. She rejects the idea of romance until three of literature's "greatest" lovers escape from their books to convince her to take a chance on love.

CHARACTERS

CHARLOTTE – A book lover. She probably drinks tea and has cats.

DEWEY – A librarian. No one understands the jokes on his t-shirts.

CYRANO DE BERGERAC – Puts on airs. Big nose.

HELEN OF TROY – Brassy. Beautiful.

JULIET CAPULET – Innocent. Obsessed with death.

HESTER PRYNNE – A loose woman.

SIR LANCELOT – Oh man. This dude.

SETTING: A library in your town. The present.

SHADOW HILLS HIGH SCHOOL

Book & Lyrics - Justin Anthony Long / Music - Ge Enrique

Concept - Jonny Lee Jr

Raquel, Gretel, and Sandy are everyone's favorite girl scouts. Most days they can be seen outside the Walmart in Sugar Land, Texas selling their cookies. They're so close to getting their cookie badges when two local troublemakers rob their moneybox! They may just be kids, but these three scouts prove that even the smallest packages can pack a big punch.

CHARACTERS

RAQUEL - 12 years old. Leader of the girl scouts. She takes her job seriously and keeps the other girls on task. Raquel helps the girls "do the right thing" when they get robbed.

GRETEL - Caucasian. 12 years old. She's usually seeking the group's approval doing whatever she can to fit in. Gretel has a lot of heart, but won't hesitate to kick you in the face with her combat boots if you mess with her or her friends. She's crushing hard on Sandy and may or may not realize.

SANDY - Asian-American or Pacific Islander. An enthusiastic scout with wacky marketing ideas. An excellent shot with a bow & arrow; won't hesitate to kick your butt if you get in between her, her friends or money box.

BRODY/BILLY - Any ethnicity. 18 years old. He's a local troublemaker who wants to teach the girl scouts that life isn't always sweet and sunny. Billy is another troublemaker.

MARCUS/DEREK - Any ethnicity. 18 years old. He's Brody's friend, who steals the girls' money box. A troublemaker. Derek is another troublemaker.

SETTING: Sugarland, TX; April 2012

It's the final rehearsal at a small regional theater, and the lead actor STILL can't remember his lines. Only the director's klutzy assistant can help save the show.

CHARACTERS

FANNY - 20s to 30s, female-identifying, sharp, kind, and spirited. Quick with a self-deprecating joke and a word of encouragement.

TONY - 20s to 30s, male-identifying, young leading man, a “Prince Charming” type, as handsome as he is insecure.

MORTY - 60s to 80s, male-identifying, an elder statesman of the New York theatre scene, a bullish, wise-cracking, “Borscht Belt” type.

DESIREE - 20s to 40s, female-identifying, self-involved and surrounded by amateurs, a classic “Diva” type.

STEVE - 20s to 40s, male-identifying, a soft-spoken, cool techie.

SETTING: In the final rehearsal of an operetta at a small regional theater, present day.

THE SPIANS PERFORMANCE TROUPE

Music - Jonathon Lynch / Lyrics – Kit Goldstein Grant & Gil Varod

Book – Gil Varod

When Crystal's blind date raises a yellow flag within the first minute of their date, Crystal pops into the bathroom and is indecisive about whether she should escape out the window. Luckily she's about to be visited by herself from the future, who has an opinion on what she should do. Followed by another version of herself from the future with advice. Followed by multiple successive versions of herself, each with their own thought of how the date should go... or should have gone. Will Crystal learn to stop taking advice, even her own?

CHARACTERS

CRYSTAL - Woman in her 20s or 30s on a first date. Extremely indecisive, easily impressionable.

STERLING - Somewhat awkward but sweet male around the same age as CRYSTAL

FUTURE CRYSTAL - Older version of Crystal, maybe by just a few years, maybe a few decades. Indecisiveness has led to regret.

FUTURE CRYSTAL 2 - Same age as Future Crystal, being stifled has led to regret.

FUTURE CRYSTAL 3 - This one actually speaks quite differently, like she's from the war-torn timeline she comes from.

FUTURE CRYSTAL 4 - Same age, from a happier future, but still isn't happy.

FUTURE STERLING 4 - Married to Future Crystal 4. Fed up with Crystal's indecisiveness and regret.

BUSGIRL - Same age range of Future Crystal.

SETTING: A Magnolia Bakery.

MUSICAL NUMBERS

1. Time Travel Makes Complete Sense (Future Crystals)
2. Someone Somewhere Tell Me What To Do (Crystal)
3. I'm Gonna Regret It Too (Crystal & Future Crystal)
  4. Regret Sequence (Future Crystals 2-4)
  5. Life is a Cupcake With Cream (Crystal)
    - 5.1. Transition (Future Crystal)
6. Time Travel Makes Complete Sense Reprise (Future Crystals)

PALM DESERT HIGH SCHOOL

Book and Lyrics – Will Lacker / Music and Lyrics – Dylan Glatthorn

Mary Mallon is one of the cooks at Sloane Hospital for Women in New York City in 1915. She's preparing her signature dish, Peach Melba, but grows increasingly nervous when she recognizes the strange visitor that's come to investigate the recent typhoid outbreak.

CHARACTERS

MARY MALLON - Late 30s/early 40s. Mezzo/Belter. The infamous Typhoid Mary. Boisterous and brazen, yet kind-hearted. Hard-working and devoutly Catholic. An Irish-born American who lives and works in New York as a hired chef. She's publicly known as an asymptomatic carrier of Typhoid and has previously been arrested and quarantined on North Brother Island. After three years, she was released with the requirement that she not work as a cook. However, staunchly refusing to believe the science, she soon returned to cooking and began spreading Typhoid again. She now works in the kitchen at Sloane Hospital for Women, where she goes by the name of "Mary Brown" in order to avoid law enforcement.

MARGARET - 20s/30s. Alto/Mezzo. Brooklyn native. As Mary's co-worker at the hospital kitchen, Margaret goes around delivering meals to the patients. She has been working at the hospital for years now. She is overly nice and a bit of a gossip — she's seen it all and would be happy to tell you about it. Just like everyone in New York, she's read all the headlines about Typhoid Mary. She's lost family members to typhoid.

GEORGE SOPER - 30s/40s. Baritone. Big mustache. A sanitation engineer who had worked for the New York City Department of Health. He spends his time trying to discover the causes of urban diseases as a sort of public health private investigator. Eight years earlier, he tracked down and identified Mary as the cause of a Long Island typhoid outbreak, which led to her first quarantine. He has now been tasked with discovering the cause of a typhoid outbreak at Sloane Hospital for Women. A clinical man with a nervous disposition. He is not eager to arrest Mary for a second time but knows it is his duty.

POLICE OFFICER - A silent, imposing figure of law. He is accompanying Soper on his hospital investigation.

SETTING: Time: 1915. Morning. Place: The large kitchen of Sloane Hospital for Women in New York City.
